Session Description

Trainers: Courtney Huff, Melissa Nantais, Tennille Whitmore

This training is specifically designed to address the need for systematic and explicit instruction in phonological decoding and comprehension practice with high-interest children's literature. The program has been chosen as the curriculum for America Reads, a U.S. Department of Education reading initiative. It's an effective curriculum for prekindergarten and kindergarten students and a logical next step for students who are performing below DIBELS benchmarks in kindergarten or first grade.

Target Audience:

- Kindergarten & First Grade Teachers
- Reading Interventionists
- Title I Teachers
